PASSENGER BAGGAGE AND PERSONAL EFFECTS

Vol 2 Issue 2, FY 2024-25

Passenger baggage

This refers to any accompanied or unaccompanied luggage any person returning to a partner state or for a person who temporarily enters a country which he does not normally reside in (non-resident) or arriving from places outside Uganda. The passenger baggage must be accompanied by the owner or any authorized person

Personal effects

All articles, new or used which a passenger may require for his or her personal or household use during or after the Journey but excluding any goods imported or exported for commercial purposes, subject to such limitations as the Commissioner may impose. These are goods imported by passengers arriving from places outside Uganda. Such goods may be taxable or non-taxable. Tax exemption is allowed on goods as specified below

General Conditions

The general condition is that the goods must be the property of the passenger and must be accompanied by the passenger. The goods must be for personal or household use of the passenger and of such kinds and quantities at the port of arrival/departure as the proper officer (Customs Officer) may allow as provided for in Part B of the 5th schedule of the East African Community Customs Management Act 2004 as amended and subject to the restrictions mentioned below

Goods not exempt under Passenger Baggage and personal effects

- Alcoholic beverages of all kinds, perfumes, spirits, tobacco and manufactures thereof (except as provided for under Duty-Free Allowances).
- Fabrics in piece.
- Any trade goods or goods for sale or disposal to other persons.

Note: Unprocessed foods and other Agricultural items like fruits, flowers, cuttings, and seeds among others and live pets require clearance from the relevant Ministry or Government Agency i.e Ministry of Agriculture, Animal Industry and fisheries. All medicaments require clearance from relevant ministries (National Drugs Authority)

Duty-Free Allowances

The following items may be imported as duty-free items: -

- Spirits (including liquors) not exceeding one litre or wine not exceeding two litres.
- Perfume and toilet water not exceeding 500 ml of which not more than 250 ml maybe perfume.
- Cigarettes, cigars, cheroots, cigarillos, tobacco, and snuff not exceeding in all 250 grams in weight.

Note: The duty-free allowance is only allowed for passengers who have attained the age of eighteen years. Also, note that goods in excess of the allowable quantity attract payment of tax irrespective of their intended use and home use inclusive

Bona Fide changing residence

The following goods may be exempted when imported, by a person on first arrival or a returning resident whom the proper officer is satisfied is bona fide changing residence from a place outside a Partner State to a place within a partner state

- Wearing apparel.
- Personal and household effects of any kind which were in his personal or household use in his former place of residence.
- One motor vehicle, “(excluding buses and mini busses of seating capacity of more than 13 passengers and load carrying vehicles of load carrying capacity exceeding two tones)” which the passenger has personally owned and used outside a Partner State for at least twelve months (excluding the period of the voyage).

Temporary visit

The following goods may be exempted when imported as baggage by a person whom the proper officer is satisfied is making a temporary visit not exceeding three months to a Partner State

- Non-consumable goods imported for his personal use during his visit which he intends to take out with him when he leaves at the end of his visit.
- Consumable goods and non-alcoholic beverages in such quantities and of such kinds as are in the opinion of the proper officer consistent with his visit;
- That the goods are imported by a returning resident being an employee of an international organization the headquarters of which are in a Partner state and who has been recalled for consultations at the organization's headquarters.

Returning Travelers

- Wearing apparel.
- Personal and household effects which have been in their personal use or household use.
- Goods for personal use valued at US Dollars two thousand (USD 2,000) for every traveller, other than the goods specified above are exempted when imported by the traveller as accompanied baggage and declared to a proper officer provided the person has been outside Uganda for a period exceeding 24 hours.

Clearance of Passengers

Embarking and disembarking passenger clearance is done only at Customs gazetted areas such as airports, seaports, landing sites and points of entry at land borders. All disembarking passengers must make a declaration to Customs through either the Red or Green Channel according to the East African Community Customs Management Act (EAC-CMA).

- Green channel means 'No goods to declare'.

It is baggage consisting of goods within prescribed passenger allowance

- Red channel means 'Goods to Declare' either dutiable or restricted goods. Furthermore, travellers should present to customs their purchase receipts/invoices and any crucial information pertaining to the goods in order to ensure quick and smooth clearance through customs. It is important to note that any misdeclaration to customs constitutes an offence under the East African Community Customs Management Act. Offenders are liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to a fine not exceeding 10,000 dollars.

Note: Culprits may choose to abandon goods but pay fine or serve a sentence. Customs operates 24 hours, 7 days a week at Entebbe International Airport

1. The client arriving by air, private vehicle, handcart and bus takes the goods and to the warehouse or baggage hall or market desk. .
2. The officer receives all the goods, performs physical examination in accordance with the cargo examination manual, records it in the warehouse register and issues a customs deposit slip (F89) in the name of the passenger that travelled and arrived with the baggage.
3. The officer captures a PB4, records descriptive verification account and uploads all customs supporting documents including simplified certificate of origin where applicable, deposit slip, purchase receipts, identity card (National ID, passport, drivers permit), invoices, manifests etc.
4. The officer assesses the payable taxes using the prevailing customs indicative values and indicate the applied values and source in the inspection act and issues an assessment slip to the client.
5. The client shall proceed and effect payment of the assessed taxes and present proof of payment to the officer.
6. The officer shall confirm payment, process release, supervise loading of the goods or handover the goods to the owner where applicable.
7. The officer generates an exit note indicating the vehicle number where the client is using for delivery of the goods.
8. The officer who performed the exit of the goods shall update the warehouse register with taxes the entry number, taxes paid, PRN number and exit number.

Key things to note

- a. The officer who removes goods from the bus, and receives the goods from the traveller must register the goods in the register and issue a deposit note.
- b. PB4s and subsequent release of goods should only be to persons who present the valid deposit notes – this will avoid cases of people's goods disappearing or being cleared by wrong people.
- c. The reference number of all PB4s shall be the deposit note number.
- d. Only capture goods which have been verified and issued a valid deposit note.
- e. Goods arriving by air or bus must be cleared within 12 hours from the time of importation.
- f. The PB4 entry regime applies to goods whose value does not Exceed US dollars 2,000.
