August 25, 2023

According to the law, a tax agent is an individual, partnership, or company who has been approved and licensed following a successful application, reviewing, vetting and awarding of a certificate of registration to become a tax agent by the Tax Agents Registration Committee.

What is expected of a tax agent?

Upon approval, a tax agent is responsible for the following:

- Preparation, certification, and filing tax returns, information returns, or other statements or reports required by the Authority on behalf of a taxpayer.
- Preparations for requests, for ruling, petitions, for reinvestigation, protects, objections, request for refunds for tax certificates, compromise settlements and/or abatement of tax liabilities, other official papers, and correspondences with the Authority.
- Represents the taxpayer in meetings and hearings in all matters relating to a taxpayer rights, privileges, or liabilities under the laws or regulations administered by the Authority.
